

Since the Indiana telephone Privacy Act began I have been able to finish a meal, watch a tv show and spend time with my family without a bank or credit card company interrupting me. Please leave Indiana's telephone privacy law intact so that I may enjoy unreasonable and greedy intrusion into my home and personal life as the constitution intended.